Hotels

Here is a list of hotels and motels in the Tri-Valley area. Some take dogs, some do not. Remember that you can leave your dogs at the show grounds in a locked building between the hours of 10:00 P.M. and 6:00 A.M. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights. A roving Security Guard oversees the area around the buildings at night. If you are lucky enough to find a hotel that accepts dogs we ask that you treat these hotels well. Keep dogs quiet and crated while in rooms. DO NOT BATHE DOGS IN HOTEL BATHTUBS. Do your grooming at the show, not in the hotel room. Exercise dogs off hotel property and always pick up after them.

AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- . The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- . The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- . The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- . The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
